

Accusation

False Accusation

claim that someone has done a crime, or something illegal

Accusation

*Talar faced an accusation of breaking the schools rules.

*Amad made a serious accusation against his classmate without evidence.

- Accusation
- Allegation

Conviction

being found guilty of a criminal offence.

(v) condemn (Latin)

PRONUNCIATION:

/kən'dem/UK

/kən'dem/US

DEFINITION:

1. (v.) Express strong disapproval of. (We condemn the racism in South Africa)
2. (v.) Declare or judge unfit for use or habitation. (The building was condemned by the inspector)

The joy of

con·vic·tion

/kən'vikʃ(ə)n/

noun

1. a formal declaration that someone is guilty of a criminal offense, made by the verdict of a jury or the decision of a judge in a court of law.

"she had a previous conviction for a similar offense"

synonyms: declaration of guilt, sentence, judgment

"his conviction for murder"

2. a firmly held belief or opinion.

"his conviction that the death was no accident"

synonyms: belief, opinion, view, thought, persuasion, idea, position, stance, article of faith

"his political convictions"

Crime

a violation of law which is subject to punishment.

Crime

The detectives worked to solve the mysterious crime of Josef Fritzl.

Defence

the name for the lawyers defending proceedings brought against someone

Defence

Defense

Defense and defence are two different spellings of the same word that typically means “protection” or “something that guards against harm.”

In American English, the spelling defense is typically considered standard and is much more commonly used. In British English, the spelling defence is typically the preferred spelling and is more commonly used.

Judicial decision

Jurists opinion